Parents Making a Difference
at Home and at School

Workshop Presenter Angie Wilcock:
High Hopes Educational Services

Dear Parents
You are invited to attend this workshop on how you can make a difference in your child’s learning and engagement at school. The session will cover:

- What is parent engagement?
- How can parents support their school?
- “I hated school! How can I help?” Busting the myths!
- Strategies to support your child’s learning at home—it’s not impossible
- How DOES your child learn? Understanding what makes them tick!

If you are interested in attending please contact your school or
